Mardicas Dance – A war dance of the pirates that has become a custom in the town of Ternate. Participants carry with them a tabak in one hand and a balaraw on the other, fighting hard to save the image of Sto. Niño. That is how the Mardicas, the first inhabitants of Ternate from Mollucas, worshipped the image.

Karakol Dance – A religious procession dance with the patron saint being paraded on the streets followed by a fluvial procession.

Live via Crusis / Kalbaryo ni Hesus –A cultural tradition that reenacts the life of Jesus Christ done during Holy Week. This tradition which started in Cavite City was staged for the first time on Holy Tuesday of 1974. It was in response to the challenge of the late parish priest, Msgr. Baraquiel E. Mojica of San Roque, Cavite City to create a venue for a more meaningful celebration of the Holy Week.

Sanghiyang / Sayaw sa Apoy — A precolonial ritual celebrated by firewalkers of Alfonso. It combines elements of folk religion, magic and Christian faith. It is a gesture of thanksgiving and a rite to cure the sick. People conducted "Sanghiyang" rituals as an offering to Bathala for a bountiful harvest, thanksgiving for recovery from illness, or deliverance from death. The ritual is believed to have started from Naic long before the arrival of the Spaniards and the friars suppressed its observance. The people learned to incorporate same Catholic elements into the rituals and the majority of the spirits invoked are presumed Christian saints.

Old Churches

Cavite's old churches stand as glorious reminders of how the Catholic faith bloomed from the time Spain conquered our dear province until the time that Caviteños revolted to achieve freedom. These places did not only serve as places of worship but as silent refuge and witnesses of revolutionary activities. The following are the old churches in the province:

Cavite City

San Pedro Apostol Parish Church - A revival of the old church of the same name which was put up between 1586 and 1591.

Nuestra Señora dela Soledad de Porta Vaga, San Roque Parish Church — The church was built in 1632. The Nuestra Señora dela Soledad de Porta Vaga is the beloved patroness of Cavite City.

Kawit

St. Mary Magdalene Church – The church is one of the oldest churches in the Philippines. Established by the Jesuits when the town in 1624 was considered as the playground of sailors on shore leave, the church transformed the town of Kawit into "the most Christian community in the islands" in 1749.

City of Bacoor

St. Michael the Archangel Church – It was created as a separate parish from Kawit on January 18, 1792, under the Royal Cedula issued by Ferdinand VI, King of Spain, to the Spanish Governor-General in the Philippines.

City of Imus

Cathedral of Our Lady Pillar / Imus Cathedral – The church was built between 1825-1837. The church is an example of Hispanic colonial architecture and exudes an ambiance conducive to monastic life and spiritual meditation.

Silang

Our Lady of Candelaria Church — An example of a colonial church with rococo altars. It was established as a parish by the Franciscans on February 3, 1595. The first church got burned on August 30, 1603.

City of General Trias

St. Francis of Assissi Church / General Trias Church

 Built as early as 1611 but the first stone church was erected in 1769 under the leadership of Doña Maria Josepha de Yrizzari Y Ursula, Countess of Lizarraga.

Tanza

Holy Cross Church – Built in 1839 and restored in 1873 after a strong earthquake had caused its collapse. The original structure was the site where Emilio Aguinaldo took his oath as President of the Revolutionary Government along with Vice President Mariano Trias.

Indang

St. Gregory the Great Church – The structure originated from a chapel that was built in 1611. Construction of the church was completed before 1710. The church is unique in its hand-painted trompe l'oeil ceiling, an optical illusion that makes objects appear to exist in three dimensions.

Alfonso

St. John Nepomucene Church – The church was built on the 20th of January 1861. It has a classy façade with a minimal brick pattern and a clean line that stands out. The church is now famous for church weddings.

Naic

La Purisima Concepcion Parish Church / Immaculate Conception Parish Church – The Dominicans built it in the same Gothic style of the Sto. Domingo Church between 1867 – 1888. It sits in the center of the former Dominican hacienda of San Isidro Labrador which funded the development of the University of Santo Tomas during the Spanish colonial period.

Ternate

Sto. Niño Church — Known for the original Sto. Niño statue brought by the first settlers who arrived from Ternate Island, in the Moluccas, eastern Indonesia. Jesuit missionaries established the parish in 1663, but the first stone church was not built until 1692.
