

Banks and Non-Bank Financial Institutions

Banking Institutions

Cavite's banking system is composed of universal and commercial banks, thrift banks, rural and cooperative banks.

Universal and commercial banks represent the largest single group, resource-wise, of financial institutions in the country. They offer the widest variety of banking services among financial institutions. In addition to the function of an ordinary commercial bank, universal banks are also authorized to engage in underwriting and other functions of investment houses, and to invest in equities of non-allied undertakings.

The thrift banking system is composed of savings and mortgage banks, private development banks, stock savings and loan associations and microfinance thrift banks. Thrift banks are engaged in accumulating savings of depositors and investing them. They also provide short-term working capital and medium- and long-term financing to businesses engaged in agriculture, services, industry and housing, and diversified financial and allied services, and to their chosen markets and constituencies, especially small- and medium- enterprises and individuals.

Rural and cooperative banks are the more popular type of banks in the rural communities. Their role is to promote and expand the rural economy in an orderly and effective manner by providing the people in the rural communities with basic financial services. Rural and cooperative banks help farmers through the stages of production, from buying seedlings to marketing of their produce. Rural banks and cooperative banks are differentiated from each other by ownership. While rural banks are privately owned and managed, cooperative banks are organized/owned by cooperatives or federation of cooperatives.

The BSP likewise releases selected statistics on non banks with quasi-banking functions . This group consists of institutions engaged in the borrowing of funds from 20 or more lenders for the borrower's own account through issuances, endorsement or assignment with recourse or acceptance of deposit substitutes for purposes of relending or purchasing receivables and other obligations. (www.bsp.gov.ph)

For the year 2015, there were 354 banking institutions in Cavite, up by 3.21 percent from 343 banks in 2014. In terms of share to total number of banks operating in Cavite province, universal and commercial banks have the largest distribution network accounting to 50.28 percent while rural banks with 14.97 percent.

City of Dasmariñas has registered the highest number of banks operating in the province with 15.82 percent or 56 banks. Other cities and municipality with the largest share of operational banks are City of Bacoor with 54, City of Imus, 46, City of General Trias, with 22, and Tagaytay City and Rosario with 21 banks each. While the municipalities of Amadeo, Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo and Ternate has the least number of banks, with one (1) each. Other municipalities with low bank coverage were Alfonso (with 2 banks), Magallanes (2), Maragondon (2), Indang (3) and Mendez, with 4 banks (Table 6AO).

Cavite has 354 banking institutions, 178 are universal/commercial banks, 123 are thrift banks, and 53 are rural banks. (2015)

Non-Bank Financial Institutions

Non-bank financial institutions (NBFIs) are financial institutions that do not have a full banking license but they facilitate bank-related financial services, such as investment, risk pooling, contractual savings and market brokering. Only NBFIs with quasi-banking functions (NBQBs) and those without quasi-banking function but are subsidiaries and affiliates of banks and NBQBs are subject to BSP supervision. NBQBs are financial institutions authorized by BSP to borrow funds from 20 or more lenders for their own account through issuances, endorsement or assignment with recourse or acceptance of deposit substitutes for purposes of re-lending or purchasing receivables and other obligations.

As of end-December 2015, there were 860 NBFIs without quasi-banking functions operating in Cavite. Majority are consisting of pawnshops (854). Automated Teller Machine Network

An automated teller machine (ATM) is an electronic channel that provides bank customers an alternative method of doing their financial transactions in a public area without the assistance of a human clerk or bank teller. The customer identifies himself by inserting the ATM card which has his card number and other security information, and by entering his Password Identification Number (PIN). As a form of electronic money, the ATM card can be used to buy things much like a credit card, but minus the interest on spending since it debits from the cardholder's existing account. It is also safer, more convenient, and has no real cost to the cardholder.

Latest BSP data showed that the total number of ATMs reached to 759. These were made up of 348 on-site ATMs, located within bank premises and 411 off-site or those in malls and other establishments.

In 2015, universal and commercial bank group accounted for the bulk of the ATMs at 644, thrift bank group with 109 units, while rural and cooperative bank group had six (6) units. (Table 6AQ).

Cavite has 348 on-site ATMs

Foreign Exchange Dealers, Money Changers and Remittance Agents

Foreign Exchange Dealer (FXD) is a type of financial institution that has received authorization from a relevant regulatory body to act as a dealer involved with the trading of foreign currencies. Dealing with authorized foreign exchange dealers ensure that the transactions are being executed in a legal and just way.

Remittance Agents (RAs) refer to persons or entities that offer to remit, transfer or transmit money on behalf of any person to another person and/or entity. These include money or cash couriers, money transmission agents, remittance companies and the like – BSP Circular No 471, Section 1, as amended. Local remittance agents, including money changers (MCs) and pawnshops are considered non-bank financial institutions, and are regulated and governed by the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) through the Manual of Regulations for Non-Bank Financial Institutions (MORNBFI). Before they can start operation, they are required to register with the BSP first. And before they can register with the BSP, they are required to be registered or to apply registration with other government offices, like the DTI, SEC (for partnerships and corporations), and the local government unit (LGU) or Mayor's office.

Table 6AR shows that there were 753 foreign exchange dealers, money changers and remittance agents in the province of Cavite. These facilities were more advantageous to the Caviteños which quickly convert international currencies to Philippine Pesos. Just about all foreign denominations are catered for, with the more popular being US Dollar, Euro, Japanese Yen, the British Pound and other currencies. The City of Dasmariñas has the largest share of 136 facilities, followed by City of Imus with 134, and third was the City of Bacoor with 125 facilities.

DTI Registered Business Names

In 2015, a total of 18,418 local firms registered through the business name registration with the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) Cavite Office which is about 12.73% higher than 2014 figure of 16,338 firms. The figures continue to increase every year because many businesses are being set up by those considered in the micro, small and medium enterprises (MSME) sector due to existing favorable market forces and business environment.

DTI oversees the registration of business names. With a registered name, a firm will be able to get various documents and permits in order for business to go on full operation. It also distinguishes the products and services from those of competitors and helps establish the firm's identity in the marketplace.

The DTI intends to rollout further online initiatives that would integrate business registration-related processes across business registration agencies to facilitate ease of doing business, promote transparency, curb corruption, and reduce red tape in the bureaucracy.
