Sports and Recreation

Provincial Youth and Sports Development Office under Office of the Governor provides recreational opportunities for leisure and recreation time to enhance as well as exhibit the skills and talent of our youth. They are also responsible in promoting physical, moral, spiritual, intellectual and social well-being of this integral part of our society. The Provincial Government constructs various sports venues to support this agenda. These sports facilities serve as a venue for exercising, training, and practicing as well as different sports competitions are held here.

As of 2016, there are a total of 1,268 different sports facilities in the province. Basketball court took the number one spot in the list of constructed facilities with 720 courts. It represents 56.8% of the total number of sports facilities. Other sports facilities present in the province are gymnasium/sports complex/covered court (233), stadium (3), golf links (7), golf driving range (3), pelota courts (2), tennis/badminton courts (58), sipa court (3), swimming pools (98), fitness gym (14), and other sport facilities (126). Meanwhile, there are 296 existing recreational facilities composed of parks (47), playgrounds (69), movie houses (5), public libraries (3) and others in the entire province and are utilized for various purposes (Table 5.34).
